

1st Grade Learning Choice Board: Week of 5/25

| | Choice 1 | Choice 2 | Choice 3 | Choice 4 | Choice 5 |
|--|---|--|---|--|---|
| Reading Please read each night for at least 15-20 minutes.  | Go to Reading Bear.Org and practice your initial blends . Practice for 15 minutes. Then, find objects around your house that have blends in their name and write them. | Watch and listen to this video about “-ed.” Then, complete this worksheet, “ Picnic in the Park ”. | Watch and CAREFULLY listen to, The Mixed Up Chameleon . Then, complete these comprehension pages . Do two one day and save the last page for the next day! | Read a book in a funny position. Example: read hanging off the sofa, with your feet up on a table, in the bathtub, outside with someone, or under a table. Read for 15 minutes. Send a picture to your teacher! | Practice your sight words using this PowerPoint . On the first page, click on the microphone to hear the directions. How many words can you read? Did you read them quickly? Practice it more than once! |
| Links to Other Resources: Reading Specialist School Counselors Gifted EL(Machin) LD (Ms. Garwood) Speech: BARUMTL@pwcs.edu | | | | | |
| Writing Make sure every sentence starts with a capital letter, you have finger spaces between your words and include ending punctuation. | Draw a picture of a butterfly. If you were a butterfly, where would you fly? What would you do? Write at least 4 detailed sentences. | When I go to the park, I like to...  | Go on a scavenger hunt for words around your neighborhood. (street signs, park names, directions, etc.) Then create a silly story using the words you found outside. | Tape Art! Create your name on a piece of paper using tape. Once your name is taped down, color over the whole paper. Then, take the tape off and reveal your name! Try it with your sight words, too! | Help your parents write a grocery list. Think about the items your parents buy every week and even add some of your personal wishes (cookies, ice cream, others). |
| Math Choice 3 note: “Capstone Interactive” can also be accessed through the library web page under links. | Play: Race to a Quarter Game You will need 1 die, 50 pennies, and game sheet. With a partner, play 3 games. Collect pennies, the first to collect 25 wins! | Play: Find the Time Game You will need 2 dice, 2 different colored tokens (Legos work great), and the game sheet. With a partner, the person with the most tokens on the game board wins! | Read and Write Math Read or listen to 3 math books from Capstone Interactive . *type in Math in search *Using scrap paper, write and illustrate your own math book. Read it to a family member! | Use this IXL Direct link: →Enter your child’s student number for both the username and password . →Then, click on  →Scroll down to “ First Grade ” → Scroll down to: “M. Place Value” and practice “3. Place value models up to 100!” | Practice math on Dreambox for 20 minutes at your assigned level. Your class code is posted on your teacher’s page under resources. |
| Science/Social Studies Pebble Go Login: Username: signal Password: pandas | Economics: Read Needs and Wants on Pebble Go. What does your family save money for? Fill out this chart . | Economics: Read Goods and Services on Pebble Go. Which picture shows a Good and which shows a Service? Sort the pictures . | Animal Research Project: Choose an animal you would like to learn about. Use available online resources to research the animal you have chosen. Complete this graphic organizer . | Animal Research Project: Using the information you researched on your animal, give an oral report to your parent, caregiver, or older sibling. Tell all about your animal-where does it live, what does it eat, and any interesting facts. | States of Matter: Read What is Matter? on Pebble Go. Which pictures show a solid, liquid, or gas? Sort these pictures . |
| Encore | Art Mrs. Brabant | Library Ms. Stavros & Mrs. Raiti | P.E Ms. Tackett and Mrs. Romack | Music Ms. Ralph | French Madame Ballve |

